RULES FOR OLD AGE.

By Dr. Frank Crane.

With apologies to Emile Zola, whose book on "Old Age" I do not at all fancy, I will try to set down some rules for old persons. When I am old I will observe the following items (perhaps):

I will not try to act nor dress nor talk so as to make people think I am younger than I am.
I will not pretend to be young, nor be angry when called old, nor be ashamed of my age.

I will not complain of being old.
I will not continually remind people of my old age to secure their sympathy or to hear them say I am not so old after all, or do not seem so.

I will not form the habit of indulging in reminiscences.
I will be particularly careful not to repeat the same anecdotes over and over.

I will not complain of the present and claim the past was much better.
If I am deaf, weak-eyed, lame, or otherwise afflicted I will not advertise my infirmities, but avoid obtruding them upon the notice of others as much as possible.

I will not read my manuscripts to visitors.
I will not talk of myself, my works, or my achievements, even if my mistakes, any more than is necessary.

I will speak cheerfully or keep still.
I will never indulge in cynicism, never sneer at youth, and I will try always to appreciate what younger folk do.
I will be as little bored as I can, and never say I am bored, nor, if possible, act as if I were bored.

I will not give advice unless it is asked, and not often then.
I will not be a nuisance nor an incubus, as far as in me lies.
I will not be offended by neglect, but will remember the words of the sage:

"Those who come to see me do me honor; those who do not come to see me do me a favor."

I will be as little disagreeable as possible, and will never use my natural disagreeableness as a means of getting my way.

I will cultivate the friendship and companionship of young children, who alone understand old age.

I will learn to love to be alone. As I have said: "The freest soul is the soul that is alone."

I shall try to show the world that old age is spiritual opportunity and not physical calamity.

Forced to become a bystander, I shall try to be helpful and a cheerful one. I shall try to sweeten like the pear Dr. Holmes describes that mellow and becomes full flavored before it drops from the stem, and shall try not to sour and rot.

I shall conceive my life's triumph to be to grow triumphantly, victoriously old. In a word, I shall try to adjust myself to old age, as to all other facts of life.

RESCUED BY HYDRO-AERO.

Aviator Flies to Aid of Drowning Man.

SEA CLIFF, N. Y., October 11.—Rescued from drowning by an aviator, who came to his aid in a hydro-aeroplane, was the adventure of Walter Strobach in Hempstead harbor yesterday afternoon. Strobach, a poor swimmer, fell from a rowboat a half mile off shore. His plight was brought to the attention of Charles Wald, aviator.

Wald was tuning his machine preparatory to a flight. He covered the half mile in less than a minute, tossed a life preserver to Strobach and dragged the drowning man into the machine. Then he made the return flight with Strobach as a passenger.

Thirty-Second Degree, Scottish Rite, to Be Conferred.

CONFERENCE NEARING CLOSE

Believed International Body Will Adjourn Tomorrow—Visits to Points of Interest.

A big event in Scottish Rite circles will take place in Albert Pike consistory at 8 o'clock this evening, when the degree of master of the royal secret, the thirty-second of the ritual, will be conferred upon the international conference class of eighteen by the dramatic degree staff of the consistory before the representatives to the conference and by invitation of Sovereign Grand Commander Richardson. For several weeks preparations have been in progress to make this degree work the crowning feature, so far as the local bodies are concerned, of the International Conference of the Supreme Councils of the World. The degree is the highest that can be reached by a Mason in the ordinary way. Beyond that lie the honors of knight commander of the court of honor, the thirty-third degree honorary, and an active sovereign grand inspector, all of which can be attained only by voluntary selection of the Supreme Council at its regular biennial session. These are to the Scottish Rite Mason honors greatly to be desired, but never directly or indirectly sought.

The dramatic cast for this evening's ceremony, which, it is said, will be unusually elaborate, inasmuch as by local Masons seek to show the foreign delegates how beautifully the work is done in the southern jurisdiction of the United States, is as follows: Venerable master of Kadosh, Charles G. P. Topper, thirty-second degree, prior, J. Archibald Bailey, K. C. C. H.; preceptor, Nathan Well, K. C. C. H.; prime, Rev. William Taylor, thirty-second degree, of the church of the incarnation; marshal of ceremonies, Francis A. Sebring, thirty-third degree honorary; master of the guard, John H. von Hermann, K. C. C. H., and the Albert Pike Camp Guard, commanding, as follows:

Forster L. Paylor, thirty-second degree, ninth tent; Benjamin Goldsworthy, thirty-second degree, eighth tent; Clarence E. Bright, thirty-second degree, seventh tent; Achille E. Burkin, thirty-second degree, sixth tent; Elmer C. Wood, thirty-second degree, fifth tent; Charles L. Brooks, thirty-second degree, fourth tent; Mason L. Howes, thirty-second degree, third tent; Sullivan, thirty-second degree, second tent; Melvin A. Wertz, thirty-second degree, first tent; Isaac W. Wright, thirty-second degree, fifty standard; Bernard A. Bae, thirty-second degree, fourth standard; Clarence E. Christo, thirty-second degree, third standard; Frank E. Koch, thirty-second degree, second standard; William H. Rowe, second standard.

done by the committee, nothing could be learned as to the proceedings of the international conference today, nor would any one in authority say who the conference was likely to close, although it is the general belief the end will come with a general session tomorrow, when final action will be taken on the matters under consideration and the farewells will be said to the foreign visitors.

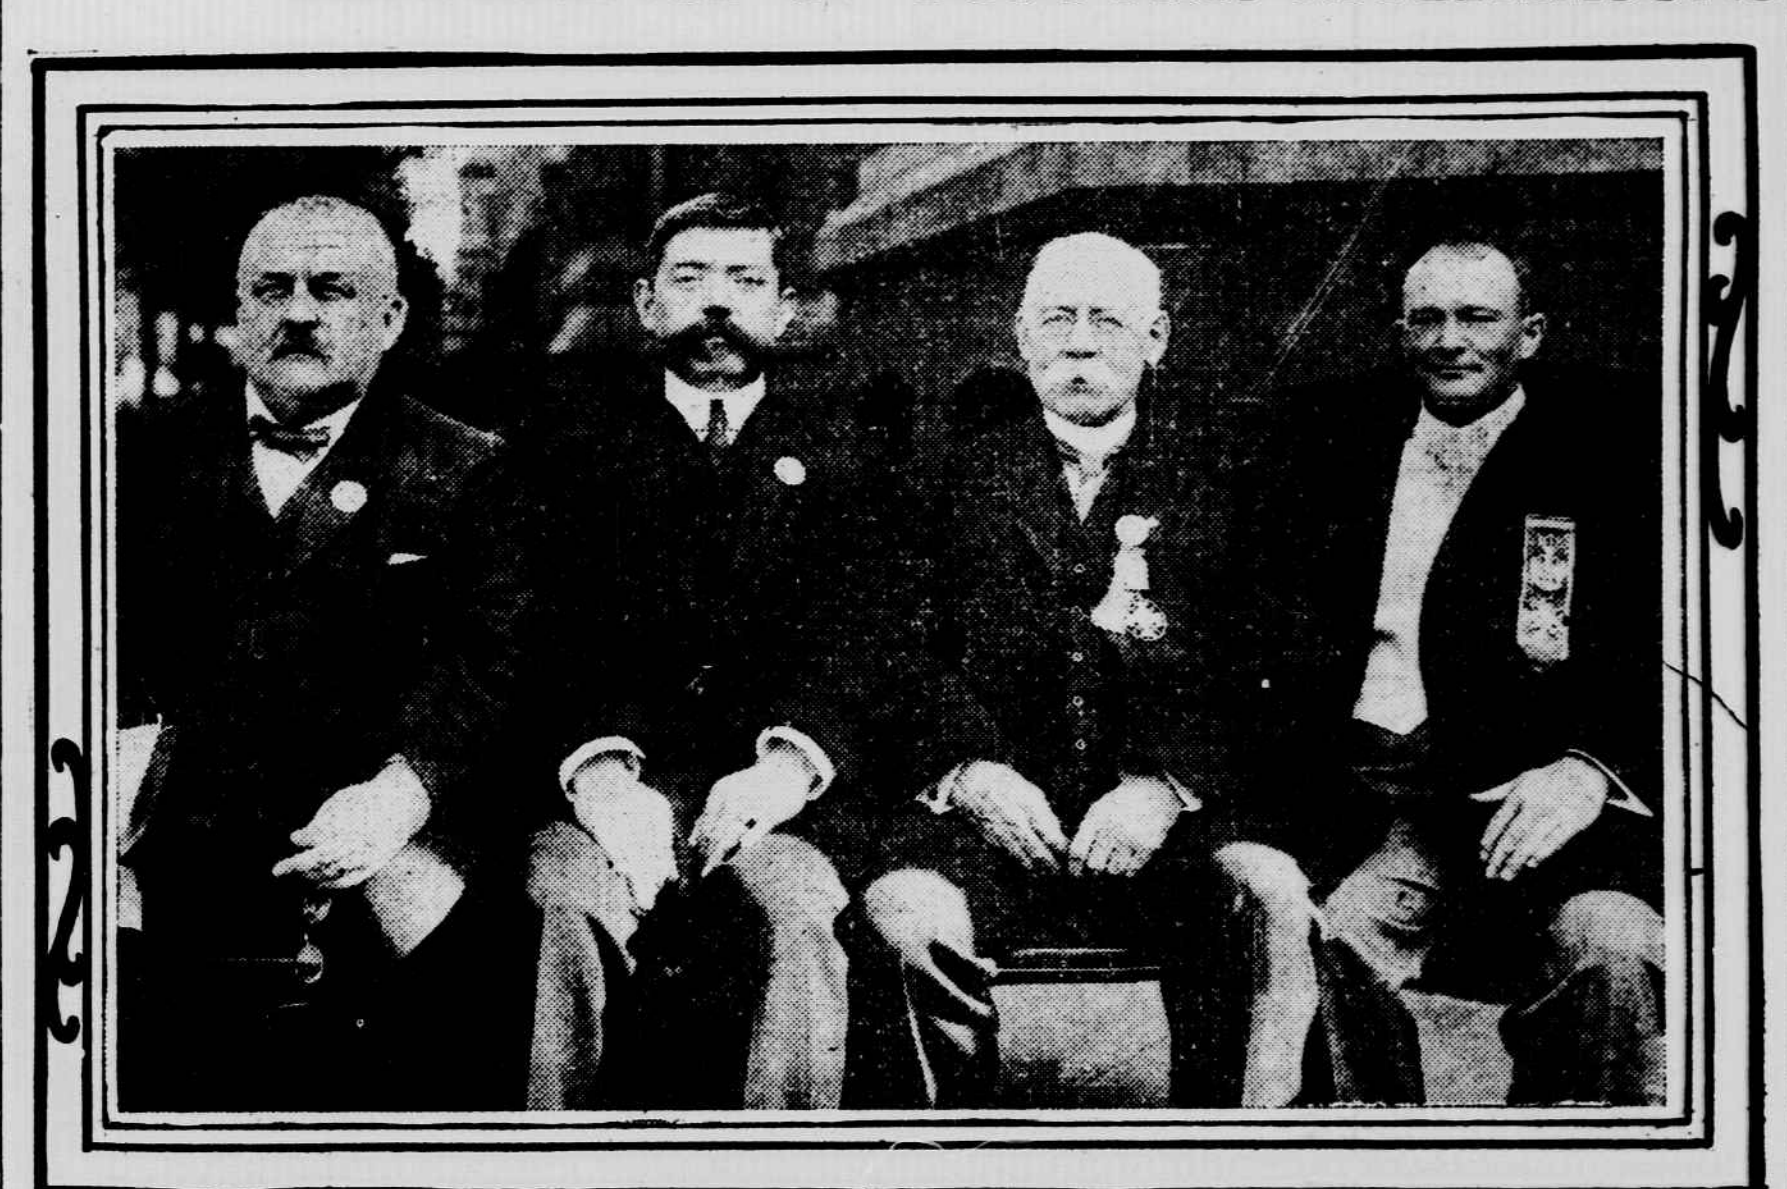

The delegates and their friends, under the guidance of the committee on fraternal courtesy, made a pilgrimage to Mount Vernon yesterday afternoon, a trip which seemed to deeply interest and please the visitors. The eight sovereign grand commanders in attendance at the conference held a wreath on the tomb of Washington with a ceremony that was marked for its simplicity. Superintendent Dodge extended every possible courtesy, and the visitors inspected the home and many of the Washington relics. On the return trip the party stopped at Alexandria, where they visited Christ Church, the lodgeroom of the lodge of which George Washington was the first worshipful master, explanation being made here as at Mount Vernon through Sovereign Grand Commander Castellot of Mexico, the official interpreter of the conference. Courteous acknowledgments were made to Tiler Zachary of the Alexandria Lodge, who pointed out the objects of historic interest.

The party on its return left the electric train near the Highway bridge at the entrance of Potomac Park and took automobiles for further sightseeing and recreation.

The Lancaster lodge is one of the oldest in America, having received its warrant in 1785. The visit tonight will be a return of a fraternal call by the Lancaster Masons on Harmony Lodge last April.

Program Arranged.

The program of the visit has been arranged so that the members of the local lodge will attend a special communication in Lancaster. The Masons there intend to work three degrees with the Washington guests as witnesses, and it is understood that George Guthrie, grand master of Pennsylvania, and Past Grand Master Orady will be present. A trip to the Masons' Home of Pennsylvania at Elizabethtown has been scheduled for tomorrow. The home is said to be remarkable for the extent of its properties and undertakings.

Mrs. Robert H. Young, wife of the master of Harmony Lodge, accompanied the party.

President's Name on Rolls.

Lodge No. 43 of Lancaster has been connected with many historical events. Its archives contain the record of the conferring of the degrees upon James Buchanan, who afterward became President of the United States. It shows the records of his service during a full Masonic year, as well as of his Masonic funeral.

Gen. Lafayette, on his visit to Lancaster in 1825, was entertained by a hall at the Masonic Hall in Lancaster, the home of this old-time lodge. Lodge No. 43 has occupied its own temple since 1800, and has upon its altar a Bible printed in 1796, and in use since that date. This is one of the most cherished relics of Masonry in Lancaster.

Imports of crude materials for manufacture during the first eight months of 1912 were larger than at any time in the history of the United States, according to figures made public by the division of statistics of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce.

More than a million pounds of raw silk in excess of the previous year came into the country during the first eight months of the current year, while the increase in cotton imports for the same period over the first eight months of last year was 14,500,000 pounds. The raw silk imported totaled 11,750,000 pounds, as against 12,500,000 last year, while the cotton brought in to the manufacturer during the first eight months of 1912 amounted to 102,500,000 pounds, as against 88,000,000 pounds in 1911. Inflamed Kidneys

Medical writers declare it incurable after the sixth month whether albumen or not. The average man prefers to think of it as "kidney trouble" and lets it go, but the census for 1900 shows this appalling fact—out of 60,000 deaths from kidney troubles over nine-tenths of them (58,000) took the form called "Bright's Disease," although it is quite probable that nine-tenths of these up to the last moment thought of it as called it "kidney trouble," when as a matter of fact the only possible hope laid through treatment for Bright's Disease.

Until Fulton's Renal Compound was worked out we never knew of a recovery in a case of chronic Bright's Disease. Since then inflammation of the kidneys whether albumen or not, or whether called "kidney trouble" or "Bright's Disease," or whether six months' or six years' standing, often finds where patients have fair hearts and recuperative power.

If you have had kidney trouble over six months, no matter what you call it, if the books are true you have something to seriously consider.

Fulton's Renal Compound can be had of Jan. O'Donnell's Drug Store. Ask for pamphlet. We desire to hear from and advise with those not improving the third week. Write John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco, Cal.

First eight months of 1912 was $418,807,350, compared with $343,423,438 in 1911. Finished manufactures likewise show an increase. The figures for the eight month period show the total value of these for 1912 to be $491,685,506, compared with $424,914,636 for the same period in 1911.

Bars Soldiers of Fortune.

No American soldiers of fortune are wanted to fight the battles of Greece and the Balkans against the Turks. Only Greeks will be welcomed under the Greek banner.

Specific instructions have been received from the Greek foreign office at the legation in Washington forbidding the acceptance of any volunteers or enlistments other than from Greeks.

The tomb of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Md., will be shortly opened to the public. Mrs. Charles Carroll, who has just returned to Doughoregan manor after a trip to Europe, stated that she felt the tomb belonged to the public. The furniture in the historic old chapel is being rearranged and a white marble holy water font will be set up near the door.
